

Grab Rails

Grab Rail is designed to increase safety and accessibility by providing support for pushing up from a sitting position, steadying the body, or standing up. It is often used in bathrooms and toilets.

- 300mm overall length x 32mm overall diameter with concealed fixing.
- 450mm overall length x 32mm overall diameter with concealed fixing.
- 600mm overall length x 32mm overall diameter with concealed fixing.
- 750mm overall length x 32mm overall diameter with concealed fixing.
- 900mm overall length x 32mm overall diameter with concealed fixing.
- Solid stainless steel construction using grade 304, providing water and moisture resistance.

Grab rails required to withstand a user's functional force by taking into accounts hand movements, body weight, etc. It is important to identify the wall material before the installation.